Product Description

Impact Mill Rock Crushing Used Impact Crusher Second Equipment 50-120 Ton Per Hour Capacity

Product Description

Impact rotary crusher is the world's widely used crusher, for mineral processing, chemical, cement, construction, refractories, ceramics, glass and other industrial sectors in the broken and broken bits for a variety of medium hardness materials. Their product's size can be adjusted, broken standard variety. The family of devices can dealing with the material with the side length 500mm, not more than 350Mpa anti-pressure strength, is an ideal aggregate processing equipment in the senior road surface and hydropower building.

Advantages of Impact Crusher

PF series impact crusher can crushing many different kinds of materials strength less than 360 Mpa, such as limestone, gypsum, concrete, etc. Widely used in mining, sand and gravel, water conservancy and hydropower, highway, railway, chemical industry, building materials and other industries in the crushing and plastic the machine has a simple structure, no key connection, unique counter lining, high efficiency and energy saving, the product is cubic, the size of the particile size can be adjusted, the crushing process can be simplified, and the production cost can be saved.

Working Principle

Impact crusher has two series: two-cavity and three-cavity impact crusher. It is a kind of crushing equipment using impact energy to crush material driven by motor. When the materials get into the area where the plate hammer effects, by whose high speed impact function, the crushed materials are thrown to the impact device above the rotor continuously, and then they are rebounded from the impact liner to the effect area of the blow bar to be crushed again. The materials are crushed from big-size to small-size in the impact cavity repeatedly. The process goes on until the materials are crushed to the required size and then discharged from the down part of the machine.
