Product Description

Product Introduction

CS Cone Crusher is Based on the introduction of foreign technologies. multi-laminated broken principle. the conceptual design of more crushing and less milling and according to customers needs the cs-Series spring cone crusher is the modern high performance crusher which combines the high-frequency. optimized cavity and reasonable strokes together. Practices have proved that CS Series spring cone crusher win the world widiy customers trust by its excellent performance, reliable quality and cost-effective ratio.

Working Principle

When the materials that can not be crushed pass through the crushing chamber or the machine overloads, the spring safety system makes the cone discharging hole become larger. When objects are discharged from crushing chamber, discharging hole will automatically reset. Cone crusher resumes normal operations.

Performance Characteristics Of This Machine

1. This crushing equipment has compact structure and high productivity. It adopts bowl-shaped bearing which has high precision. Concentrated thin oil lubrication system is also used.

2. The size of the discharge opening can be adjusted by propelling cylinder. When the materials that can not be crushed enter into the crushing chamber, the spring safety device can protect the equipment.
3. This machine adopts grease seal to avoid mixing of water and oil. When sealing parts are worn, spring can help them recover sealing function. When the thickness of sealing part reduced to 1/4-1/3 of the original thickness, users should replace the sealing part.
